How we use pupil information

High Lane Primary School are a data controller for the purpose of the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR). We collect information from you and may receive information about you from your previous school, local authority and/or the Department for Education.

This privacy notice has been created to inform children, young people, and their parents/carers, how we use their information.

We collect your information to:

- to support pupil learning and the delivery of education
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to assess the quality of our services
- to keep children safe
- to comply with our statutory obligations

The categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share include:

- personal identifiers and contacts (such as name date of birth, unique pupil number, contact details and address)
- characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, religion and free school meal eligibility)
- safeguarding information (such as court orders and professional involvement)
- special educational needs and disability status
- medical and administration (such as doctor's information, health, allergies, medication and dietary requirements)
- attendance
- assessment and attainment
- behavioural information

The lawful basis on which we use this information

When we collect, process or share your information, we ensure it is lawful for at least one of the following reasons:

- Article 6(1)(c) - legal obligation

We are required to process pupil data so that we meet the legal requirements imposed upon us such as our duty to look after you and protect you from harm.

- Article 6(e) - public interest

It is necessary for us to disclose your information so that we can provide you with an education and look after you. This is known as being in the public interest and means we have real and proper reasons to use your information

Sometimes, we may also use your personal information where:

- Article 6(1)(a) - consent

Consent may be relied upon to process some forms of pupil data which are not used within the normal business of the school such as use of photographs in the public domain or arranging school trips.

- Article 6 (d) - vital interest

It is in your or another's vital interests for your personal information to be passed to these people or services, to the extent that it is necessary to save someone's life.

We do not process any special categories of personal data except where necessary for:

- Reasons of substantial public interest in complying with legal obligations (including under the Equality Act 2010). (Article 9(2)(g)).
- Explicit consent given by the data subject (Article 9(2)(a)).
- Purposes of preventive or occupational medicine (Article 9(2)(h)).

Where the legal reason for processing your personal information is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time, without affecting the lawfulness of our processing prior to your withdrawal. Please contact admin@highlane.stockport.sch.uk should you wish to withdraw your consent for any of the above activities.

Collecting pupil data

The information we process is obtained by the school from both the Local Authority and yourself/your parents.

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide us with is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the UK GDPR we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing pupil data

We hold pupil data securely in line with our data Retention Schedule. This data is protected in locked cabinets and/or password protected software

When this information is no longer required, it will be confidentially destroyed or deleted.

For more information on our data retention schedule and how we keep your data safe please contact the school office.

Who we share pupil information with

We routinely share pupil information with:

- schools that the pupil's attend after leaving us
- our local authority, Stockport Metropolitan Borough Council
- Four Rivers Trust
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- medical information as appropriate/necessary to first aider and / or NHS
- Stockport Family services as appropriate
- Stockport SEND team as appropriate
- Marple Childcare as appropriate
- Extra-curricular clubs as appropriate
- External providers for residential and other visits as appropriate
- Contracted educational service providers (eg school swimming providers)
- Education and communication software (eg ClassDojo)

We will not give information about you to anyone outside this establishment without your consent unless the law permits it. We are required by law to pass some of your information to the Local Authority for monitoring, tracking and provision of appropriate services, and to the Department for Education.

These organisations are then required to share some of this information with trusted partners including NHS Trusts and other Local Authorities in the case of admissions. Appropriate data will be used by certain Local Authority services to provide the best support possibly to children and young people.

There may be circumstances in which we may lawfully share personal data with third parties where, for example, we are required to do so by law, by court order, or to prevent fraud or other crimes. Where we share data, however, we shall do so in accordance with applicable data protection laws.

Why we share pupil information

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our pupils with the (DfE) under regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to

<https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit:

<https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

For information about which organisations the department has provided pupil information, (and for which project), please visit the following website:

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, parents and pupils have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, or be given access to your child's educational record, please contact headteacher@highlane.stockport.sch.uk to make a request or alternatively you can view our Data Subject Rights Policy at <https://highlane.stockport.sch.uk/>

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing

- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations
