

Maths Activities

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Sequencing and Time Dinosaur's Day (using the dinosaur pictures below).	Sharing Do you have any dinosaurs or unicorns at home? If not you can use teddies. Set the toys up for a picnic.	Halving Think about your picnics from yesterday. They will help you to find these answers.	Dinosaur Maths Booklet	Dinosaur Maths Booklet
Look at dinosaur's day (below). Put the pictures in order. What time you think he does the things in the pictures? Can you write down the times?	Set out four toys. Can you share out the following number of food items so each toy has the same amount. 4, 8, 12, 16	Using counters, can you find half of a given number? Remember, there needs to be the same amount on both sides.	Have a look through the booklet and choose activities which are suitable for your child. If you have any problems with printing – please let me know.	Have a look through the booklet and choose activities which are suitable for your child. If you have any problems with printing – please let me know.
Look at the pictures below of the dinosaur's day. Put the pictures in order. Can you make a plan of your day and draw a picture of the things that you do in the correct order?	Set out two toys. Can you share out the following number of food items so each toy has the same amount. 2, 4, 6, 8, 10	Grown ups – Give your child some different shapes. Show them how to cut them in half.	Have a look through the booklet and choose activities which are suitable for your child. If you have any problems with printing – please let me know.	Have a look through the booklet and choose activities which are suitable for your child. If you have any problems with printing – please let me know.
Put the pictures of the dinosaur's day in the correct order.	Set out two toys. Can you share out the following number of food items so each toy has the same amount. 2, 4, 6, 8, 10		Have a look through the booklet and choose activities which are suitable for your child. If you have any problems with printing – please let me know.	Have a look through the booklet and choose activities which are suitable for your child. If you have any problems with printing – please let me know.

English Activities

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
This week we are going to plan and create a story. It could be about a dinosaur or a unicorn.
Plan your story. Who is going to be in your story? Where is your story going to happen? Write down your ideas.	Now you know who is going to be in your story, you need to plan what is going to happen. With your grown up write down some of the key words.	Chop your story up. Draw three picture to show what happens at the beginning, the middle and the end of your story.	Write your story. Can you write a sentence under each picture that you have drawn to explain what is happening in the story. Use your story plans and key words.	Can you write the story on one piece of paper now, using the plans you have so far. Maybe you can improve the story as you go and use make it even more exciting!
Plan your story. Who is going to be in your story? Where is your story going to happen?	Now you know who is going to be in your story, you need to plan what is going to happen.	Chop your story up. Draw three picture to show what happens at the beginning, the middle and the end of your story.	Help your child to write a simple sentence under the pictures that you have drawn to explain what is happening in the story.

Write down your ideas.	With your grown up write down some of the key words.
Talk to your grown up about who your story is going to be about.	What is going to happen in your story? Maybe you could draw a picture to show it?	How is your story going to end? Draw another picture about what happens at the end.	Look at some stories that you already know with your grown up. Can you chop those stories up? What happens at the beginning, what happens in the middle and what happens at the end?