HIGH LANE PRIMARY SCHOOL

7th October 2019

Dear Parents/Carers

HARVEST, WEDNESDAY, 16TH OCTOBER 2019

Unfortunately, due to the on-going building works in the school hall which have resulted in part of the hall being cordoned off, we will not be able to hold our traditional Harvest Assembly for parents. I apologise for the late notice for those of you who may have booked time off work, but the contractors were only in school this weekend preparing for work to be carried out over the holiday.

We will be celebrating Harvest with the children on Wednesday, 16th October and all classes will contribute to our special assembly.

This year we are again collecting items in aid of the Wellspring Kitchen. They have sent a wish list which is as follows:

Tinned meats for sandwiches (corned beef, ham, luncheon meat), tinned meats for use in soups (stewed meats, hot dogs, meat balls),, vegetable and meat soups, tinned vegetables (potatoes, carrots, green beans,), tinned fruit, pie filling – sweet and savoury, pickle, , tea, coffee, sugar, razors, shaving foam, shower gel and liquid soap, tooth brushes, toothpaste, roll-on deodorants, tinned rice pudding, cordial, mayonnaise

They, respectfully, do not require the following as they already have adequate stocks: kidney beans, baked beans, chick peas, grapefruit, prunes, tinned tomatoes, tinned spaghetti, sweet corn, tinned fish, marmalade and jam, pasta, rice or any fresh food.

Please send in your tins and dried goods (in date please) on Monday, 14th and Tuesday, 15th October.

Yours sincerely
