

Dear Matild,

I am on a big trip to Telford with my mum,
dad and sister.

It is a good week but my mum said that my sister was selfish. She took all of the red sweets
on the trip down.

We went to the farm and I held a little chick.
It was so much fun. I had to set him down on a shelf with his food.

There was a child at the farm that did not like the chicks. I held one for him to let him see it but he did not do it himself.

I will see you when I am back.
